

OBTAINING A NAVY JAG CORPS INTERVIEW

All applicants must complete an interview with two Navy JAG Corps officers (also known as a “Structured Interview”) before their application will be considered. Informational interviews and interviews with other branches of service do not satisfy this requirement. Once completed, the interview is valid for three years. Applicants may not complete more than one interview within a three-year period.

If this is your first application to the Navy JAG Corps, please be aware that your interview will not be scheduled until you submit your application and your interview must occur no later than the application deadline. Accordingly, you should submit your application several weeks in advance of the application deadline to allow time to schedule and complete your interview.

Law students applying to the Student Program should contact the regional office assigned as point of contact for their law school, listed below. If your law school is not listed, you should contact the regional office assigned to the nearest law school that is listed.

Licensed attorneys applying to the Direct Appointment program should contact the nearest regional office to schedule an interview.

To schedule an interview, send an e-mail to the appropriate regional office, as indicated below. If you have not received a response within five business days, or if you have questions about the application process, please contact us at navyaccessions@navy.mil.

NOTE: Most interviews take place at our regional and branch offices. Interviews for applicants not located near one of these offices may involve travel at personal expense. When time and resources permit, our regional offices may arrange a schedule of interviews at other locations within their region. Contact the appropriate regional office early in the application process to check availability.
